INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors
His House, Inc.
Miami, Florida

I have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of His House, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) (the organization) as of June 30, 2011 and the related statements of activities, cash flows and functional expenses, for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the organization's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of His House, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of June 30, 2011 and the changes in its net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards and the Florida Single Audit Act, I have also issued a report dated December 28, 2011 on my consideration of His House, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and my tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of my testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing and not to provide an opinion on the internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. Those reports are an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and the Florida Single Audit Act and should be considered in assessing the results of my audit.

My audit was performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements of His House, Inc. taken as a whole. The accompanying schedules of expenditures of Federal awards and expenditures of state financial assistance are presented for purposes of additional analysis as required by U. S. Office of Management of Budget Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations and the Florida Single Audit Act, and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. All supplemental information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in my opinion, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

HIS HOUSE, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 2011

1. Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

His House, Inc., (the Organization) is a not-for-profit Florida Corporation incorporated on February 28, 1989. The purposes of the Organization are to provide an immediate, safe, home-like atmosphere for abused, neglected and drug exposed children; and to recruit, train, cultivate and retain foster parents in the south Florida area.

The Organization's operations are principally funded by private grants, contracts from federal and state government agencies, and program service fees.

The Organization was recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) on September 13, 1990, and thereby it qualifies as a tax-exempt organization.

Basis of Accounting: The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Classification of the Organization's net assets and its revenues and expenses are based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. The Organization classifies net assets by the following categories:

- a. Unrestricted net assets consist of net assets that are not subject to any donor-imposed stipulations.
- b. Temporarily restricted net assets consist of net assets subject to donor-imposed or other legal restrictions on the use of the assets that may be met either by the passage of time or by actions of the organization.
- c. Permanently restricted net assets result primarily from contributions and other inflows of assets whose use the organization is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire with the passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by actions of the organization.

Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulations or by law.

Contributions received with donor-imposed restrictions that are met in the same year they are received are reported as revenue of the "unrestricted" class.

The Board of Directors has designated $1,000,000 of net assets as capital reserve funds.

Cash Equivalents: All highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased are considered to be cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment: Purchases of property and equipment having a unit cost (or fair value if contributed) of $1,000 or more and an estimated useful life of more than three years are capitalized. Furniture and equipment are depreciated over their estimated useful lives for accounting as well as for tax purposes. Improvements are amortized over the remaining life of the related lease.

HIS HOUSE, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 2011

Inventories: Inventories of food, clothing and household items are recorded at the lower of cost (or fair value at date of donation) or market value.

Recognition of Revenues and Support: Support from donations is recognized when received.

Donated Property and Services: Donated property and services are recorded at their fair value when received. The financial statements include $12,385 of donated services. No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for donated services which did not; (a) create or enhance non-financial assets or (b) require specialized skills provided by individuals possessing such skills and which would have been purchased if not provided by donation. However, a substantial number of volunteers have donated significant amounts of their time to the Organization.

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Accreditation: In January of 2007 His House, Inc. was accepted as a full member of the Council on Accreditation, a national association of non-public organizations. The Organization was recertified in 2011. The Organization underwent a rigorous process in order to achieve membership. This signifies that His House, Inc. meets the highest performance standards and delivers the very best quality services.

2. Promises to Give

Unconditional promises to give are recognized as revenues or gains in the period received and as assets, decreases of liabilities, or expenses depending on the form of the benefits received. Conditional promises to give are recognized when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met.

Unconditional promises to give at June 30, 2011 are as follows:

Due in less than one year	$ 200,000
Due to one to five years	0
Total unconditional promises to give	200,000
Less discounts to reduce to net present value @3.25% (level 3 fair value estimate)	6,295
Total unconditional promises to give at June 30, 2011	$ 193,705

The Organization had no conditional promises to give at June 30, 2011.

HIS HOUSE, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 2011

3. Contracts

The Organization is the recipient of a full case management contract with Our Kids, Inc. The contract reimbursement is based upon service units. The original contract period was January 1, 2007 to June 30, 2007 with extensions granted thru October 31, 2009. A new contract was signed for the period November 1, 2009 through December 31, 2013. Approximately 37% of the Organization's revenue from grants and contracts for client services is a result of the contract.

The Organization also works under contract with Childnet providing His House licensed foster families for Childnet children placements. The contract extends from July 2010 to June 2011.

The Organization was the recipient of a vendor contract with the Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) during the period October 2009 to September 2010. The vendor contract increased during the fiscal period as the ORR requested additional services.

The Organization is the recipient of a grant from the Office of Refugee Resettlement for residential and long-term foster care under the unaccompanied alien (UAC) program. The grant is for the period October 1, 2010 to September 30, 2013. Approximately 40% of the Organization's revenue from grants and contracts for client services is a result of the grant.

4. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment at June 30, 2011 are summarized as follows:

		Estimated Useful Life (Years)
Horizon building/improvements	$ 674,313	3.5
Leasehold improvements	169,352	5
Office furniture and equipment	456,736	3 -5
Transportation equipment	400,925	5
Residential furniture and equipment	274,414	10
	1,975,740
Less accumulated depreciation	1,507,668
	$ 468,072

5. Rent - Lease Commitments

In September 2005, His House, Inc. signed a permit agreement with Miami-Dade County for use of buildings at the Community of Landmark for a one year term from October 1, 2005 to September 30, 2006, with a one year optional renewal period to September 30, 2007. The agreement had subsequently been extended to January 31, 2008. New lease agreements were signed and extended for the periods from February 1, 2008 to January 31, 2010 and February 1, 2010 to January 31, 2012.

HIS HOUSE, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 2011

Future minimum payments due under the permit agreement are as follows:

Year Ending June 30:

2012

$ 345,006

6. Grants and Program Fees Receivable

The receivable results from contract services provided to Our Kids, Inc., the Office of Refugee Resettlement, and shelter services provided to other agencies. An allowance for uncollectible receivables is provided based on management's evaluation of individual accounts. Approximately 35% of receivables are due from contract services provided to Our Kids, Inc., and 59% are due from the Office of Refugee Resettlement.

7. Commitments and Contingencies

The Organization receives all of its funding from private donations, government contracts and other not-for profit organizations. A significant reduction in the level of this funding, if it were to occur, would have a significant effect on the Organization's ability to carry out its programs and activities.

Expenses reflected in the accompanying financial statements relating to government funded programs are subject to audit by the respective funding sources. The possible disallowance by the related agency of any item charged to a program cannot be determined at this time. No provision for any liability that may result has been made in the financial statements.

8. His House Academy

His House Academy offers at-risk children a faith-based private school education in a small classroom setting. In a trauma-sensitive learning environment, the Academy is committed to providing each child with the care and attention necessary for consistent behavioral and academic development. An after school enrichment program includes music, dance, and exposure to aviation experience.

9. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Organization maintains cash balances at financial institutions in Florida. At various times through out the year the Organization had cash deposits in excess of federally insured limits. At June 30, 2011 the Organization's uninsured balances total $815,145.

HIS HOUSE, INC.

10. Temporarily Restricted Net Assets

Temporarily restricted net assets, which are held in cash and contribution receivables, are available for the following at June 30, 2011:

Programs and service expenditures:
Restricted by passage of time	$ 0
Other	147,018
	$ 147,018

11. Notes Payable

The Organization leases copier and printer equipment under various capital leases. The economic substance of the leases is that the Organization is financing the acquisition of the equipment through the lease, and accordingly, it is recorded in the Organization's assets and liabilities.

The total equipment capitalized	$ 141,516
Less accumulated depreciation	82,158
	$ 59,358

The following is a schedule by years of future minimum payments required under the lease together with their present value as of June 30, 2011,

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Directors of
His House, Inc.
Miami, Florida

I have audited the financial statements of His House, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of and for the year ended June 30, 2011 and have issued my report thereon dated December 28, 2011. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of American and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing my audit, I considered His House, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing my auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing my opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of His House, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, I do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of His House Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

My consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that might be deficiencies, significant deficiencies or material weaknesses. I did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that I consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

His House, Inc.

Compliance

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether His House, Inc.'s financial statements are free of material misstatement, I performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grants, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of my audit and, accordingly, I do not express such an opinion. The results of my tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, others within the organization and federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON COMPLIANCE WITH REQUIREMENTS THAT COULD HAVE A DIRECT AND MATERIAL EFFECT ON EACH MAJOR FEDERAL PROGRAM AND STATE PROJECT AND ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER COMPLIANCE IN ACCORDANCE WITH OMB CIRCULAR A-133 AND CHAPTER 10.650, RULES OF THE AUDITOR GENERAL

His House, Inc.
Miami, Florida

Compliance

I have audited the compliance of His House, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) with the types of compliance requirements described in the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-133 Compliance Supplement and the requirements described in the State of Florida Executive Office of the Governor's State Projects Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs and state projects for the year ended June 30, 2011. His House, Inc.'s major federal programs and state projects are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs. Compliance with the requirements of laws, regulations, contracts and grants applicable to each of its major federal programs and state projects is the responsibility of His House, Inc.'s management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on His House, Inc.'s compliance based on my audit.

I conducted my audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and OMB Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations, and State of Florida Chapter 10.650, Rules of the Auditor General. Those standards, OMB Circular A-133 and Chapter 10.650, Rules of the Auditor General require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program or state project occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about His House, Inc.'s compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion. My audit does not provide a legal determination on His House, Inc.'s compliance with those requirements.

In my opinion, His House, Inc. complied, in all material respects, with the requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs and state projects for the year ended June 30, 2011.

Internal Control Over Compliance

The management of His House, Inc. is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with requirement of laws, regulations, contracts and grants applicable to federal programs and state projects. In planning and performing my audit, I considered His House, Inc.'s internal control over compliance with requirements that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program or state project in order to determine my auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing my opinion on compliance and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with OMB Circular A-133, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, I do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of His House, Inc. internal control over compliance.

A control deficiency in an entity's internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect and correct noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program or state project on a timely basis. A material weakness in control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program or state project will not be prevented, or detected and correct, on a timely basis.

My consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be deficiencies, significant deficiencies or material weaknesses. I did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that I consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, others within the organization and federal and state awarding agencies and pass-through entities and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
