Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc. as of June 30, 2017, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying schedule of expenditures of state financial assistance, as required by Chapter 10.650, Rules of the Auditor General, Florida Single Audit Act Audits – Nonprofit and For-profit Organizations, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is also not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated January 25, 2018, on our consideration of Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2017

Note A – General Information and Significant Accounting Policies

General Information - Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc. (the Organization) is a not-for-profit corporation organized to provide a Work Release Transition Program facility for criminal offenders in Columbia County, Florida. The Organization is exempt from income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) as a public charity.

Donated Services and Materials - The Board of Directors serves without compensation. These services are not recorded in the financial statements since they generally are not susceptible to objective measurement or valuation. Additionally, the Organization occasionally receives donated goods for use in its operations. Management has determined that such amounts are not material to the financial statements of the Organization.

Basis of Presentation - According to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets. The Organization does not have any temporarily or permanently restricted net assets.

Program Contract Revenue and Receivable - Program contract revenue represents amounts for providing program services under the terms of the contract with the Florida Department of Corrections. Receivables from this program contract represent amounts due under the contract and are considered fully collectible.

Under the work release contract, the Organization is authorized to charge those inmates employed through the program a subsistence rental charge, which is 55% of the inmate's net pay, not to exceed a maximum rate per the contract. During the current year, the Organization earned subsistence charges in the amount of $1,224,927 from work release program participants who were employed.

Property and Equipment - Purchased assets costing in excess of $1,000 individually or in the aggregate are capitalized and recorded at cost. Donated assets are recorded at their fair market value at the date of the donation. Improvements and betterments are capitalized, while repair and maintenance expenditures are expensed in the statement of activities. Property and equipment are being depreciated over its estimated useful lives of 5 and 7 years using the straight-line method of depreciation. Depreciation expense for the year ended June 30, 2017, was $5,966.

Note A – General Information and Significant Accounting Policies – Continued

Cash and Cash Equivalents - For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Organization considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Interest Expense - The Organization incurred no interest expense during the year ended June 30, 2017.

Income Taxes - The Organization is a not-for-profit corporation which has obtained tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code with no unrelated business income and is not subject to income tax. Management has evaluated this tax position and has determined that it is more likely than not to be upheld.

The Organization has evaluated the tax positions for all open tax years and believes that all positions are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Organization date of inception is in 2014 and therefore is not subject to Federal or State income tax examinations by taxing authorities for years from 2014.

Allocation of Expenses - The costs of providing the various program and supporting activities of the Organization have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the program and supporting activities.

Note B – Related Party Transactions

The Organization earned $1,399,385 under contract #C2805 during the year ended June 30, 2017. The contract, which is terminable by the Florida Department of Corrections under certain conditions, is renewable on a periodic basis. The current contract is effective through March 2, 2019.

The Organization provides drug, alcohol, counseling, rehabilitation and employment services to inmates and is compensated for the provision of these services by the Florida Department of Corrections on a monthly basis. Additionally, the Organization has a concentration of credit risk for program contract revenues, resident rent revenue and receivables. If there were a significant decrease or termination of the contracts, there would be an adverse effect on the Organization's program services and operations. These revenues and receivables represent amounts earned and collectible, respectively, for providing drug and alcohol counseling and rehabilitation programs for criminal offenders. All of the program contract revenue and receivables are received from the Florida Department of Corrections.

During the year ended June 30, 2017, the Organization decided not to make a contribution to the plan.

Note G – Subsequent Events

In preparing these financial statements, management has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through January 25, 2018, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No events or transactions which require recognition or disclosure were identified.

Subsequent to year end the combined group of affiliated organizations has incurred significant cash flow issues in the operation of their programs. To alleviate these problems, Christian Prison Ministry, Inc., an affiliate of this organization, entered into an agreement to sell specifically identified properties to a non-affiliated organization and lease such property back under the terms of a 15-year lease, with two additional 5-year renewal options. The sale is projected to be completed in February of 2018, and is expected to pay off the principal of outstanding debt, of which this organization is a guarantor, and in addition provide over $4 million of cash flow to support the operations of the combined group.

Independent Auditor’s Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters Based on an Audit of Financial Statements Performed in Accordance With the Government Auditing Standards

Board of Directors
Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.
Orlando, Florida

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2017, and the related statements of activities, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated January 25, 2018.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.’s internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.’s internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization’s internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the organization’s financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.'s financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards, in considering the organization's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.'s major State projects are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with the requirements of law, regulations, contracts, and grants applicable to its State projects.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of the Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.'s major State projects based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States and Chapter 10.650, Rules of the Auditor General, of the State of Florida. Those standards, and Chapter 10.650, Rules of the Auditor General, of the State of Florida, require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major State project occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.'s compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major State project. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination on the Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.'s compliance.

Opinion on Each Major State Project

In our opinion, Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc. complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major State projects for the year ended June 30, 2017.

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc. is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.'s internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major State project to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major State project and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with Chapter 10.650, Rules of the Auditor General, of the State of Florida, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Bridges of America - The Lake City Bridge, Inc.'s internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a State project on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a State project will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with the type of compliance requirement of a State project that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses, or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may still exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of Chapter 10.650, Rules of the Auditor General, of the State of Florida. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.
